The Great Awakening Is Revolutionary: a Memoir of Actual Letters Written to Fight for the Soul of Our Nation.

Archway Publishing Do you like where the United States of America is headed? If your answer is "yes," it's because the information war and cancel culture has kept you in the dark about the rampant corruption destroying our country. In this book, the author reveals how identity politics is destroying the foundation of our Constitution. He answers questions such as: • How does the mainstream media trick so many people into believing falsehoods? • What can our forefathers and the Constitution teach us about battling tyranny? • Why have politicians been able to sell out the country to the highest bidders? • What steps must we take to fix the corrupt deep state system? The author once thought elected officials were tending to our nation honestly, but careful observation showed him that they are doing the opposite. Take a stand for freedom, ask the right questions, and consider how to change the trajectory of our nation with the letters, poems, and insights in 1776 Rewind. Look to a Nation By Sonny B. The Civil War was a war between brothers Who bled on both sides For a cause that should've since long died So I say leave the monuments For the world to see As a reminder of what happens when we disagree In hopes to learn not to repeat history Blacks fought in this war It could land them back with the slave master Knew if they lost the war It would be a monumental disaster Police brutality no I don't condone, But reality is I'm more likely to be murdered by my own Police brutality so loud we can't hear the sound! Of Black on Black blood cryin out from the ground Why no outrage when we kill each other? Is it because the media sees it as ok to kill your brother? Naw that just don't fit the bill A black man taken down by a white man Yeah that's more of a thrill So you censor my voice and agree with another While you recklessly divide a nation of all colors All lives do matter, black, white, yellow and red We are all God's children so can we put this issue to bed? We say the justice system is broken And Blacks get more time The fix is simple Just don't do the crime Am I the only Black man that can see this? We getting sold out by Judas' kiss Will somebody define racism PLEASE!!! Media tryin to infect our minds with a sick disease Are you tellin me we're worse off in the future? And our pain compares to Dr. Luther? Wake up my brother before it's too late, Before we destroy the whole human race Can we admit there are issues on all sides? Let's band together so this nation can truly thrive Take a slave out of chains and out of the cotton fields Tell a man he's a victim and watch what it yields Anger, rage now he's back in a cage Imprisoned in his mind only to be enslaved Kaepernick, Lebron James oh yeah and Kyrie too, We pander to these three And dare me to disagree If I disagree I will have to pay Or give an apology on the very next day I used to get away from fake news by watching ESPN Now politics in sports have become the new trend Is that equality? Seems one sided to me And this is what we callin free speech? You kneel to the flag You disrespect the Anthem White lives died, black lives died We all had a loss And before you made your millions It came at a cost If we could remain as a child So innocent, so mild Pure in heart without ever being defiled Go ahead ask a child what do you see? I only see a person that's a friend of me Look again don't you see his color? No I see a person that's like a brother The Good Book tells us There's nothing new under the sun Everything we see today has already been done So love your neighbor as yourself And please don't tell a lie We can't run from the truth It's a word we can't deny It's not a race issue But an issue of the heart But you can't understand this, because we've grown too smart So, what is the answer to undo this MESS? By LOOKING TO A NATION, that says God Bless!!!

Technospaces

A&C Black Science and technology have had a profound effect on the way humans perceive space and time. In this book, an international team of authors explore themes of depth and surface, of real and conceptual space and of human/machine interaction. The collection is organized around the concept of Technospace--the temporal realm where technology meets human practice. In exploring this intersection the contributors initiate debate on a number of important conceptual questions: Is there a clear distinction between the real spaces of the body or the city, and the conceptual space of virtual reality? How are real and metaphorical spaces of electronic cultures quantified and regulated? Is there an ethics of technospace? Historically, the reception of new technologies has been invested with romantic idealism on the one hand and panic on the other. The authors argue that in order for utopian dreams to be tempered by ethical, humanistic needs, we have an urgent need to reveal, reflect upon and evaluate technospace and our relationship to it.

Rooms of Intercession

Entering into Passionate Prayer

Xlibris Corporation Chapter 7 Room #2 The Mummy Wrap Intercession is exciting but not necessarily comfortable all the time. I discovered this some years ago while praying alone in my bedroom one afternoon. I recall so vividly kneeling at my bedside to pray as I'd done in times past. As I began praying in the Spirit the presence of God quickly filled the room. Then I began interceding for lost souls, specifically for homosexuals. Finally I began to pray deeper into the situation until I found myself lost in prayer. Everything in the natural realm around me grew dim as my spiritual senses were heightened. I knew that I was going into another room in the spirit. Then something very frightening happened that I'll never forget as long as I live, I became one of them; the very ones for whom I was praying! It seemed inconceivable but I knew that it was real as I began to think and feel just like a homosexual. The way I saw things were no longer through my own eyes, but through the eyes of a homosexual. It was a terrifying reality that I had now become someone that I'd never been before! As the door to this room was shut behind me, I wanted to scream. I desperately wanted to run and quickly get out but the Lord had other plans. As a homosexual, initially I did not think of myself any differently than anyone else. The thought never occurred to me that my lifestyle was abnormal until I began to hear voices in the air. These voices were all around me declaring the love of God and the truth of His Word. I listened very intently. At the outset the truth seemed as though it was piercing through my soul like a sharp arrow but soon it melted into my spirit like a soothing salve. Although my mind wanted to resist I knew deep within my heart that the things that I heard were true. As I kept listening I began to understand God's message to me. The picture became clearer and clearer. Then the reality suddenly hit me, I WAS NOT BORN THIS WAY! Somehow I knew that the sexual lifestyle that I had chosen was perverted and displeasing to the God who created me. He is pure, holy and all righteous. He wondrously made me as a precious vessel of great value in His sight. He is the Creator of every beautiful thing upon the earth and He has never made a mistake. As the truth continued to penetrate my heart I became utterly appalled because I realized that I had been deceived all this time by the great Deceiver, Satan himself. Finally I knew that I had to make some changes. I made no excuses; I was ready to do the will of God. So for the very first time I began my pursuit to break free from this repulsive lifestyle. When I took the first step forward to break free, I remember trying to move my arm, but could not. Then I tried to move my legs but it was as though I was completely paralyzed. Finally I looked down at myself and was absolutely shocked! My body was totally confined in a mummy-like wrapping of thick chains extending from my neck to my feet. This wrapping about my body prohibited me from moving any part of my body. I felt like a helpless prisoner trapped in my own body. No matter what I tried to do, I could not break free. I did everything that I could think of, but it was to no avail. It was as though someone had locked me up and thrown away the key. The terror that I felt in my heart at that moment was like an indescribable nightmare. While in this room of intercession it seemed as though I had been squirming under the mummy wrap for days upon days, trying to get out. Although I had a desire to be free, I could not get out. My head was the only part of my body that was mobile. I just couldn't understand why I could not get out. As I continued to squirm and try to twist my way out, I began to feel great pressure in my mind. The tremendous frustration and unrest within me intensified as I kept trying to free myself from this entrapment of horror. It seemed as though everything was

Memory and the Moving Image

French Film in the Digital Era

Edinburgh University Press A vital rethinking of memory and the moving image for the digital age, Isabelle McNeill investigates the role of the moving image in cultural memory, considering the impact of digital technologies on visual culture. Drawing on an interdisciplinary range of theoretical resources and an unusual body of films and moving image works, the author examines the ways in which recent French filmmaking conceptualises both the past and the workings of memory. Ultimately the author argues that memory is an intersubjective process, in which filmic forms continue to play a crucial role even as new media come to dominate our contemporary experience.
Memory and the Moving Image:
 *Introduces new ways of thinking about the relation between film and memory, arising from a compelling, interdisciplinary study of theories and films
 *Subtly explores the French context while drawing theoretical conclusions with wider implications and applicability
 *Provides detailed and illuminating close readings of varied moving image works to aid theoretical explorations
 *Moves away from auteurist approaches, examining work by canonical directors including Jean-Luc Godard, Chris Marker and Agnès Varda alongside that of less well-known filmmakers such as Claire Simon and Yamina Benguigui *Brings together thinkers such as Bergson, Deleuze, Bazin and Barthes with, for example, Rodowick and Mulvey, in an engaging interweaving of theories.
Works considered include Jean-Luc Godard's Histoire(s) du Cinéma (1989-98), Yamina Benguigui's MA(m)moires d'Immigrés (1997), Chris Marker's CD-ROM Immemory (1998), Claire Simon's Mimi (2003), Michael Haneke's Caché (2005) and Agnès Varda's multi-media exhibition, L'Alle et Elle (2006).

The Wings of Love Volume 2

Joseph K. Osei The world will be safer and a paradise, if mankind learns to live with its innocence. Unconditional love is the cover cloth of the innocence. Instead of mankind to swim in the romantic lake of unconditional love for the discovery of the hidden paradise bewitching marriage and relationships; lack of awareness, mankind is swimming in the dirty gutters of false love, creating its own worst nightmares. Engaging in marriages, love and sex relationships with the ego's mindless love tantamount to creating a timing bomb for your destruction. False love nourishes us with the bread of sorrows. Prior to selfishness, mankind has embraced the ego's mindless love as the simple way of life. Individual's nuts have transformed love and sex meant to be a divine gift into a merchandise commodity. Since love and sex became a merchandise commodity to be purchased and being manipulated by wealth, unconditional love has been buried under the great oceans surrounding the mother earth. False love is the major contributor to the atrocities caused in the name of love. This lovely book; 'The Wings of Love Vol.2' is of much significant to the human races. It highlights and guides mankind for the acknowledgement of the Supreme power of Love, the origin of Life Force. Alike, to enables mankind to distinguish between false love and natural love to avoid deceptions and atrocities caused in the name of love consistently. 'Prevention is better than cure.' Natural Love creates no misery. The living hell in which mankind is condemned by the mercy of false love can be transformed into the living heaven through the power of unconditional love. Love unconditionally, and you will always find pleasure in love. The power of Love conquers all.

Falling Into Matter

Problems of Embodiment in English Fiction from Defoe to Shelley

University of Toronto Press Falling into Matter examines the complex role of the body in the development of the English novel in the eighteenth century. Elizabeth R. Napier argues that despite an increasing emphasis on the need to present ideas in corporeal terms, early fiction writers continued to register spiritual and moral reservations about the centrality of the body to human and imaginative experience. Drawing on six works of early English fiction -- Daniel Defoe's Robinson Crusoe, Jonathan Swift's Gulliver's Travels, Samuel Richardson's Clarissa, Henry Fielding's Tom Jones, Elizabeth Inchbald's A Simple Story, and Mary Shelley's Frankenstein - Napier examines how authors grappled with technical and philosophical issues of the body, questioning its capacity for moral action, its relationship to individual freedom and dignity, and its role in the creation of art. Falling into Matter charts the course of the early novel as its authors engaged formally, stylistically, and thematically with the increasingly insistent role of the body in the new genre.

Women in ichthyology: an anthology in honour of ET, Ro and Genie

Springer Science & Business Media This special volume is dedicated to the contributions of women ichthyologists. Three colleagues were selected to represent all women ichthyologists, Ethelwynn Trewavas (ET), Rosemary Lowe-McConnell (Ro) and Eugenie Clark (Genie). All have had distinguished professional careers and have contributed in their own ways to their science. The career of each is highlighted by a personal interview with one of the editors of the volume, a bibliography of their lifetime publications, and a biography of their careers. Questions of historical inequities and current controversies in the treatment of women ichthyologists by their peers are raised and addressed by the women themselves. The personal and professional influences of these three women, and other women ichthyologists, are highlighted. A survey article by Pat Brown brings a number of women ichthyologists to the attention of a broader audience, and points the way for a more comprehensive historical consideration of the accomplishments and contributions of women ichthyologists. The volume continues with 16 solicited and contributed papers. ET's studies of taxonomy and life history are echoed in papers on the taxonomy and systematics of marine angelfishes, and of freshwater bitterlings, a review of reproduction in the North Atlantic ichthyofauna, and a comparison of reproductive styles and systematics of African minnows. Ro's studies on ecology, life history and behaviour are paralleled by papers on growth and metabolism in piranha, the community structure in tide pool fishes, and the social system and reproductive patterns in groupers. Genie's pioneering work on sexual roles and sex change, and her field studies of the behaviour of marine fishes are reflected in papers on gonadal structure and environmental sex determination in brook lamprey, sexual patterns in hawkfish, reproduction and systematics in phallostethids, gonadal structure and systematics in gobiids, reproductive and predator avoidance behaviour in razorfish, early ontogeny of an African mouth brooder, and alternative life histories in killifish.

Visions of Kinship in Medieval Europe

Oxford University Press What meaning did human kinship possess in a world regulated by Biblical time, committed to the primacy of spiritual relationships, and bound by the sinews of divine love? In the process of exploring this question, Hans Hummer offers a searching re-examination of kinship in Europe between late Roman times and the high middle ages, the period bridging Europe's primitive past and its modern future. Visions of Kinship in Medieval Europe critiques the modernist and Western bio-genealogical and functionalist assumptions that have shaped kinship studies since their inception in the nineteenth century, when Biblical time collapsed and kinship became a signifier of the essential secularity of history and a method for conceptualizing a deep prehistory guided by autogenous human impulses. Hummer argues that this understanding of kinship is fundamentally antagonistic to medieval sentiments and is responsible for the frustrations researchers have encountered as they have tried to identify the famously elusive kin groups of medieval Europe. He delineates an alternative ethnographic approach inspired by recent anthropological work that privileges indigenous expressions of kinship and the interpretive potential of native ontologies. This study reveals that kinship in the middle ages was not biological, primitive, or a regulator of social mechanisms; nor was it traceable by bio-genealogical connections. In the Middle Ages, kinship signified a sociality that flowed from convictions about the divine source of all things and which wove together families, institutions, and divinities into an expansive eschatological vision animated by 'the most righteous principle of love'.
