GOD DISTORTED

HOW YOUR EARTHLY FATHER AFFECTS YOUR PERCEPTION OF GOD AND WHY IT MATTERS

Multnomah God is not a bigger version of your earthly father. When you hear the word "father," do you think of someone who is loving...or angry? Someone who is pleased with you...or constantly disappointed? Someone who is always available...or someone who is too busy, preoccupied, or distant? When you think of "Father God," what images come to mind? Regardless of the type of father you grew up with—or without—it is likely that your view of God is influenced by the relationship you had with your father. Author John Bishop wants to help you discover that God is not just like your dad. Instead, God is the Father revealed in Scripture, where the truth is clear. God is a father who is: • always there • up close and personal • fully pleased • in complete control • completely safe Filled with biblical insight and practical tools for reflection, healing, and restoration, God Distorted will enable you to break free from the lies of the enemy and see your heavenly Father as He truly is.

PERCEIVING THINGS DIVINE

TOWARDS A CONSTRUCTIVE ACCOUNT OF SPIRITUAL PERCEPTION

Oxford University Press Sensory language is commonly used to describe human encounters with the divine. Scripture, for example, employs perceptual language like 'taste and see that the Lord is good', 'hear the word of the Lord', and promises that 'the pure in heart will see God'. Such statements seem to point to certain features of human cognition that make perception-like contact with divine things possible. But how precisely should these statements be construed? Can the elusive notion of 'spiritual perception' survive rigorous theological and philosophical scrutiny and receive a constructive articulation? Perceiving Things Divine seeks to make philosophical and theological sense of spiritual perception. Reflecting the results of the second phase of the Spiritual Perception Project, this volume argues for the possibility of spiritual perception. It also seeks to make progress towards a constructive account of the different aspects of spiritual perception while exploring its intersection with various theological and philosophical themes, such as biblical interpretation, aesthetics, liturgy, race, ecology, eschatology, and the hiddenness of God. The interdisciplinary scope of the volume draws on the resources of value theory, philosophy of perception, epistemology, philosophy of art, psychology, systematic theology, and theological aesthetics. The volume also draws attention to how spiritual perception may be affected by such distortions as pornographic sensibility and racial prejudice. Since perceiving spiritually involves the whole person, the volume proposes that spiritual perception could be purified by ascetic discipline, healed by contemplative practices, trained in the process of spiritual direction and the pursuit of virtue, transformed by the immersion in the sacramental life, and healed by opening the self to the operation of divine grace.

PERCEPTION IS EVERYTHING

Lulu.com Perception is Everything is a book designed to make us realize that our thoughts sometimes are the very things that inhibit us from success and love and peace of mind. Perception was birthed in a time where God was changing my mind by simply exposing lies that I believed about him and life itself. Things that had held me captive throughout my lifetime and I didn't realize it. Perception is everything because it is the very funnel that every decision is made. Perception was written to help change our minds to line up with God's truth about us. Not the words placed within us a children by our parents, teachers or peers. Change of mind is necessary in order to mature and to grow up into the things of God. Perception of life will either hold us back or propel us forward.

AN ESSAY CONCERNING HUMAN UNDERSTANDING

A MATTER OF PERCEPTION

BREAKING THROUGH: ONE WOMAN'S STORY OF CONTINUOUS SELF-HEALING

AuthorHouse Madeline Ross's life was in an upheaval. Hurt and disappointed, perceiving that her church had betrayed her, she sought to find the truth. Old wounds of childhood abuse and a failing marriage added to her state of mind. What was she to do? Would her faith carry her through? Had God truly forsaken her? A story of betrayal, heartbreak, loss of relationship and the journey of life, it is also one of faith and perseverance. Madeline knew she would die if she did not do something. She knew she had a choice to live or to die.  This book is dedicated to all men and women who no longer believe themselves victims.

THE POWER OF LOVE PERCEPTION

LET'S GOD LOVE YOU AND DELIVER YOU FROM YOUR ADDICTIONS, PROGRAMMING YOUR MIND WITH GOD'S OWN LOVE: AN INSPIRATIONAL AND MOTIVATIONAL BOOK

THAT REVEALS GOD'S LOVE FOR YOU

Independently Published Do you feel like you have come to the end of the road? Do you feel that no one cares? Do you feel that no one understands how you feel? Do you feel all alone? Have you been victimized and brutalised? Has your heart been broken? Have you ever lost someone close to your heart? This book is for the broken hearted, those at the verge of giving up, those who feel no one in the world understands their pain: that no one really knows how they feel. I want you to know that the only way out is through the power of love perception. God's Love for Us Giving Us Strength: Our strength will always fail and we might burn out. Finding our self at a cross road in life. You might wonder how you got this far way down. But the only way out is by allowing Gods love for us to give you strength. To allow the blood of Jesus and his finished work to give you a reason to continue. This book will help you find strength in God's love for you. You have something to give: You must know that you have something to give. You are not empty but packed with treasures that the world has never seen but it depends on how you see yourself. This book aims at giving you a healthy perception of yourself. Your Perception of You: Many people have treasure in them and great potentials but it seems that they can't move forward because they have a wrong perception of themselves. For the potentials in you to find expression, you need a healthy perception of yourself. This book will show you how to derive an identity and a source of confidence from Gods love for you. Why Many Give up? Many people give up in life because of a wrong perception. Maybe they have heard negative things about themselves all their life to the point that they believe these evil reports: -Maybe they believe that they will never succeed.- Maybe they believe that they are not good enough.- Maybe they have seen failure all their life.- Maybe they have lost confidence because of a weakness.- Maybe they have been damaged because of an evil experience.- Etc. This book will help to move past all this by taking your focus off from yourself and your predicaments and placing it on God's love for you. Scientific research shows that addicts who are feel loved easily overcome their addictions and go on to achieve great things than those who are stigmatized against. If human's conditional love can heal an addict, talk more of Gods unconditional love. Religion has drifted people away from Gods love. But I believe that this book will reveal to you how much you are loved. You can do all things through Gods love for you. Value: This book aims at giving you a deep sense of value based on the sacrifice of Jesus for you and not based on your esteem of you. I would have to stop here; you would have to purchase it and drink Gods raw liquid love for you. I know that you will be blessed.

THE SECRET OF THE UNIVERSE

ON GOD, HUMANKIND AND MATTER

"Over 50 years ago, Nathan R. Wood wrote a very interesting book. He called it "The Secret of the Universe." In this book, he shows the unifying principle of the universe to be the Trinity. The trinities of space, time, matter and us are clearly explained. Then he puts it all together in a most surprising fashion. This is a real 'eye opener' for The Romans 1:20, 21 scripture. It would be worth your while to get a copy of this book and study it." -Howard Eugene Wright, "Deceitful Masters" - Why is the universe what it is? - Is it really a universe? - What is its structure? -The basic things-Space-Matter-Time-"Is there a universal principle?" -The Equation of the Universe-How far does the structure of the universe extend? -How the being of God was presented to us -How does man , God and matter effect our perception of the truth? The Trinity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit reflected and expressed in the trinities of space, matter, and time is the secret of the universe. It is the key to the many riddles of the universe. It shows why things are as they are, and that they did not happen so. It shows why space is what it is, of three dimensions. It shows why matter is what it is, of energy, motion and phenomena, with all their relationships. It shows why time is as it is, composed of future, present and past. It shows why man is made as he is. It may show the great principle of unity in all things. It should illuminate the relationship of space, matter, and time. It may well cast light on the mysterious principles of existence, of change, and of reality, in the universe. The being of God, as the central fact of the universe, may explain these universal things. It may make them clear, not as we ourselves paradoxically try to make mysteries clear, by involved effort, and intricacies of thought, and abstruse analysis, but by the broad, self-evident fact of the Trinity. "The Secrets of the Universe" is both a work of extraordinary genius and a revelatory New Thought Classic.

THE DIVINE PERCEPTION

LOVE IS THE TRUE IDENTITY OF HUMANKIND

Christian Faith Publishing, Inc. An interpretation of God's love and human identity. Based on "A Course in Miracles" and the "Bible". With great love and joy during His new creation, God included the tree of life in the middle of the Garden of Eden. God's plan of perfect love was for Adam and Eve to deny the temptation to sin and never to learn about evil. Hence, they would be able to eat from the tree of life and inherit immortality to humankind. In this book, we analyze how human life would have been if sin did not exist and how humans, through their divine perception, can see beyond their human perception. Dressed with their divine perception, they acquire the internal feeling of perfect peace, love, and joy. This is produced when the awareness of God is present in daily living. Also analyzed is how the devil hates the children of God, thus offering them an evil perception, and how he creates personalized sins for each human being. Humans who are deceived want to be gods of their own will. Thus, they deny their love to God, to creation, and to humanity. By denying their love, unknowingly, they deny love to themselves. In this manner, the devil keeps humans in a state of anguish and depression with the goal to destroy them. The devil's goal is for humans to commit suicide or wish the death of others. When humans decide to ask God for forgiveness of their sins and they reject their sinful will, then they recover their divine perception. As they remember God and accept God as their Creator, their spirits are filled with love. They then realize that the only responsibility of God's children is to forgive and love.

HENRY MORE (1614-1687) TERCENTENARY STUDIES

WITH A BIOGRAPHY AND BIBLIOGRAPHY BY ROBERT CROCKER

Springer Science & Business Media Of all the Cambridge Platonists, Henry More has attracted the most scholarly interest in recent years, as the nature and significance of his contribution to the history of thought has come to be better understood. This revival of interest is in marked contrast to the neglect of More's writings lamented even by his first biographer, Richard Ward, a regret echoed two centuries after his death. Since then such attention as there has been to More has not always served him well. He has been dismissed as credulous on account of his belief in witchcraft while his reputation as the most mystical of the Cambridge 2 school has undermined his reputation as a philosopher. Much of the interest in More in the present century has tended to focus on one particular aspect of his writing. There has been considerable interest in his poems. And he has come to the attention of philosophers thanks to his having corresponded with Descartes. Latterly, however, interest in More has been rekindled by renewed interest in the intellectual history of the seventeenth century and Renaissance. And More has been studied in the context of seventeenth-century science and the wider context of seventeenth-century philosophy. Since More is a figure who belongs to the Renaissance tradition of unified sapientia he is not easily compartmentalised in the categories of modern disciplines. Inevitably discussion of any aspect of his thought involves other aspects.

REVELATION AS TESTIMONY

A PHILOSOPHICAL-THEOLOGICAL STUDY

Wm. B. Eerdmans Publishing According to the pre-modern Christian tradition, knowledge of God is mainly testimonial: we know certain important truths about God and divine things because God himself has told them to us. In academic theology of late this view is often summarily dismissed. But to do so is a mistake, claims Mats Wahlberg, who argues that the testimonial understanding of revelation is indispensable to Christian theology. Criticizing the currently common idea that revelation should be construed exclusively in terms of God's self-manifestation in history or through inner experience, Wahlberg discusses the concept of divine testimony in the context of the debate about how any knowledge of God is possible. He draws on resources from contemporary analytic philosophy -- especially John McDowell and Nicholas Wolterstorff -- to argue for the intellectual viability of revelation as divine testimony.

JOHNSON'S (REVISED) UNIVERSAL CYCLOPAEDIA

THE PERCEPTION OF CHRISTIANITY AS A RATIONAL RELIGION IN SINGAPORE

A MISSIOLOGICAL ANALYSIS OF CHRISTIAN CONVERSION

Wipf and Stock Publishers This book evaluates the common criticism that Christianity in Asia is westernized. Since the 1980s, Asian evangelical theologians and missiologists argue that the intrusion of Western theology is responsible for the Western and, hence, alien expressions of Christianity in Asia. Yet, in Singapore, the number of Christians has increased over the last few decades. Empirical evidence demonstrates that younger Chinese Singaporeans convert from Buddhism or Taoism to Christianity partly because they perceive it as a "rational" religion over Buddhism or Taoism, which are viewed as "irrational" or "superstitious." Not only do many converts favor Christianity as a rational religion, but they do not regard Christianity as a Western religion at the point of their conversion. What accounts for those recent developments? This study explores the processes of modernization and globalization as important factors, impacting religious change in Singapore. Personal, contextual, and structural elements actually influence one's religion of choice. In facilitating effective mission, one must qualify the use of the categories, "Asian" and "Western," because religious and cultural boundaries overlap. What matters most in missiology is discerning how the gospel of Jesus Christ engages the self-understanding and lived realities of ethnic and religious others in diverse cultural settings.

THE OXFORD HANDBOOK OF PHILOSOPHY OF PERCEPTION

Oxford University Press The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy of Perception is a survey by leading philosophical thinkers of contemporary issues and new thinking in philosophy of perception. It includes sections on the history of the subject, introductions to contemporary issues in the epistemology, ontology and aesthetics of perception, treatments of the individual sense modalities and of the things we perceive by means of them, and a consideration of how perceptual information is integrated and consolidated. New analytic tools and applications to other areas of philosophy are discussed in depth. Each of the forty-five entries is written by a leading expert, some collaborating with younger figures; each seeks to introduce the reader to a broad range of issues. All contain new ideas on the topics covered; together they demonstrate the vigour and innovative zeal of a young field. The book is accessible to anybody who has an intellectual interest in issues concerning perception.

NARRATIVE, PERCEPTION, LANGUAGE, AND FAITH

Springer There have been many voices in disciplines as various as philosophy, history, psychology, hermeneutics, literary theory, and theology that have claimed that narrative is fundamental to all that is human. Here is a book that, in an engaging and amusing way, presents a coherent thesis to that effect, connecting the Joke and the Story (with all that comedy and tragedy imply) not only with our sensing and perceiving of the world, but with our faith in each other, and what the character of that faith should be.

THIS IS YOUR 'GREATER' YEAR!

A JOURNEY OF WAITING ON GOD'S PROMISES

WestBow Press This book encourages Christians to recognize that the trials and challenges we face are not for our detriment or discouragement but for Gods glory, so that His Son may be glorified through them. Often when we face crisis and trials, we focus on issues that can distort our perception of ourselves, the situation, and Gods ability to work on our behalf. A negative perception coupled with our experiences can create barriers against the power of God in our lives. This book encourages individuals to stand strong and trust God through the process and to overcome fears, anxieties, and unbelief. This is your greater year! is a roadmap of hope for hope and faith. It highlights guiding principles and positive prayers that can help us navigate the storms of life to avoid being shipwrecked or consumed. It suggests an alternative understanding of journeying, of waiting on the Lord, and attests that delayed is not denied. The book also highlights the pivotal nature of prayer and praise with the knowledge that God is faithful to that which He has promised. A key guiding principle is to remain persistent toward purpose, trusting God to birth a new thing in your life and bless you with an abundant harvest, changing your season. It encourages Christians to be expectant, awaiting change with the understanding that staying strong and trusting in the Lord will produce dividends and move the Master to work on our behalf to turn things around. Get ready to live your greater year and life now!
